Carolyn Brown is becoming another of my favorite writers. Love her writing style and she can put you right in the middle of the landscape. Texas romance filled with characters that are strong willed and I really liked that about the characters she writes about, I read through this book pretty quick as it's not very long but a very fun read.

All of Carolyn Brown's "Love Valley Series" books have the same major theme. Southern Rebel and Northern Yankee, that hate each other, are thrown together by a set circumstances that. In the end the characters fall in love and are married. Again, each book in the series has the same blatant theme. So, it's obvious what the outcome will be.
