The life of Waite Long is mostly seen as a recluse person who is promoting fear for those around him. This kind of life is creating many emotions with questions and also disbelief. Lifestyle becomes fear, leaving no answers. At least it seemed. The response of others living in the same neighborhood brings gossip and fear. Nothing is related to time, and so the daily life becomes a life of questions with many challenges. Then the answers come! When we allow changes then we know love conquers all with many surprises. The time it takes in changing for the good is like conquering mountains! It's very exhilarating and stimulating. Waite's life was like an open investigation full of excitement - but mostly the feeling of being alone. There are a lot of crossroads in life and many storms for some people, both physically and mentally. Plus the many times of loneliness for each of us. We all need to learn. Not all of life is negative, although being able to rest in loneliness, feeling peaceful among strife or danger or loving in spite of hatred or misconception. Puzzles become roadmaps! Trails are to climb and also come down! Everything is there to conquer and to use patience. Challenge promotes growth. We have to remember it's only when the end comes that we can relax. Getting there requires adjustments - surprises - endurance - even when questions keep coming. We can conquer all, then the life becomes triumphant and happiness and the strength to go on - and on to even better things! We feel better inside in spite of the ways of others. Please look at things in life kindly, how it affects others and how it makes others react. That is my wish and purpose.

soldier--forced at the age of eighteen to join a guerrilla army. And he describes the hardships that consumed Ethiopia after the fall of Emperor Haile Selassie and the rise to power of the communist junta, in whose terror thousands of Ethiopians died. Part autobiography and part social history, Notes from the Hyena's Belly offers an unforgettable portrait of Ethiopia, and of Africa, during the defining and turbulent years of the last century.

Guy Bourdin, who died in 1991, was a legend in the world of fashion photography. He was the most radical and audacious photographer of his generation but his reputation has been surrounded in secrecy - he rarely allowed his photographs to appear outside the pages of French Vogue. No book of his work has previously been published. His estate was frozen by the courts until 1997, after which his son, Samuel, gained control of his work as a result of which this long-awaited book can be published. Bourdin was originally a painter and a friend of Man Ray. His fashion photographs began to incorporate his surrealist influences. Fashion photography became an arena for his personal obsessions. The results are as shocking and astonishing as any commercial photograph ever published. They were executed meticulously. Despite his intense eroticism, subversion and, as Cecil Beaton described, 'his grotesque little gamines', Beaton referred to him in 1975 as 'unquestionably the most interesting fashion photographer in Paris today'. His work was said to have represented 'the look of an era -glamorous, hard-edged, cleverly spiced with vulgarity.. .rich with implied narratives and strong erotic undercurrents'
